

CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS
OF
ALPHA KAPPA MU HONOR SOCIETY

ARTICLE I
Name, Purpose and Organization

SECTION 1. Name: The name of the organization shall be Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society.

SECTION 2. Purpose: The purpose of the Society shall be to promote high scholarship; to encourage sincere and zealous endeavor in all fields of knowledge and service; to cultivate a high order of personal living; and to develop an appreciation for scholarly work and scholarly endeavor in others.

SECTION 3. Organization: The organization of this Society shall be national in scope and shall include:

(A) The National Organization composed of National Officers and member chapters and their officers;

(B) The Executive Council of the National Organization composed of the President, Vice President, Executive Secretary-Treasurer, Assistant Secretary, the Immediate Past President, three elected members, one elected student member, and any Emeriti.

SECTION 4. Affiliations/Memberships: The Society shall maintain membership in the Association of College Honor Societies (ACHS).

SECTION 5. Incorporation: The Society shall be a not-for-profit corporation organized under the laws of the State of South Carolina.

ARTICLE II
Chapters

SECTION 1. Location: A chapter may be established at any four year degree-granting college or institution which is fully accredited by an appropriate national or regional accrediting agency. When a branch institution has operated under an accredited institution and later separates from its parent institution, the branch institution will not be eligible to receive a charter until it is accredited by the appropriate accrediting agency.

SECTION 2. Petition for a Charter for Chapter Membership: A petition for a charter for chapter membership shall be signed by a minimum of seven petitioning juniors and seniors with a cumulative scholarship average which meets the requirements for membership. The petition must be signed by the President and Academic Dean of the College or University also. All petitions for the establishment of chapters shall be presented to the Executive Council that shall ascertain whether the institution and members of the proposed chapter are qualified for such membership according to the provisions of this Constitution. If the findings of the Executive Council are in the affirmative, the petition shall then be submitted to the active chapters for approval. A three-fourths vote of the active member chapters shall authorize the establishment of the chapter by the Executive Council. The vote of an active member chapter that fails to reply within a period of sixty days after the petition has been received shall be counted affirmative. A three-fourths vote of the active members of a chapter shall be necessary for the chapter vote on the petition to be affirmative otherwise it shall be negative.

SECTION 3. Charter: The authorization of a chapter, according to the provisions of ARTICLE II, Section 2, shall carry with it the issuance of a charter by the National Executive Secretary-Treasurer. The charter shall read as follows:

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Be it known that a charter for the establishment of _____ Chapter of Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society is hereby granted to the persons designated below as charter members, conveying to them and their duly elected associates and successors all the rights and privileges conferred in the Constitution of the Society.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the signatures of the National President and the Executive Secretary-Treasurer and hereunto affixed on this, the _____ day of _____ in the year of our Lord _____.

SECTION 4. Chapter Name: The chapters shall be named with Greek letters in alphabetical order according to the time of the installations; the first chapter being named Alpha Alpha, and the second Alpha Beta, etc. This shall not apply to original charter chapters which may retain their own combination of Greek letters.

SECTION 5. Fees: No chapter shall be authorized or established and no charter shall be issued to a chapter except upon the payment of proper fees as prescribed by the ByLaws.

SECTION 6. Chapter Officers: The chapter officers shall include a president, secretary-treasurer, faculty or staff advisor (some of whose duties will be to keep an accurate record of the chapter so as to insure continuity of activities, to keep safely chapter files, and to facilitate correspondence and contacts with the National Office), and such other officers as the chapter constitution may provide.

SECTION 7. Chapter Constitution: Each chapter is empowered to adopt a chapter Constitution and ByLaws, in keeping with the provisions and intention of the National Constitution and to submit the same to the Executive Council for approval within six months after the chapter has been established. When the chapter constitution has received the approval of the Executive Council, and a copy filed with the Executive Secretary-Treasurer it shall then become, upon its adoption by the chapter, the official constitution of the chapter. The entire process of the adopting the constitution shall be completed within one year of the date of the establishment of the chapter.

SECTION 8. Delinquency:

(A) Financial: A chapter which fails to pay the dues, fees, or assessments prescribed by the Executive Council, or by vote of the National Organization for two consecutive years, may be suspended by the National Organization in Convention. A chapter thus suspended may be reinstated upon payment of an Assessment stipulated by the Executive Council.

(B) Representation at National Conventions: A chapter which fails to be represented at the National Convention by a properly qualified delegate, for two bienniums, may be suspended by the National Organization. A chapter thus suspended may be reinstated upon payment of an assessment stipulated by the Executive Council.

(C) General: After proper warning by the National President, a chapter which fails to govern itself according to the provisions of the National Constitution or which fails to respond to and comply with the reasonable and constitutional requests of the National

Officers and/or the Executive Council, may be suspended by the National Organization in convention. A chapter thus suspended may be reinstated by satisfying the Executive Council that the delinquencies have been corrected and upon the payment of an assessment stipulated by the Executive Council.

SECTION 9. Inactivity: A chapter which has become inactive because of delinquencies listed in Section 8, or because of the loss of advisors and/or chapter officers may be reinstated by payment of reinstatement fees prescribed by the Executive Council. When a chapter has become inactive due to the loss of advisors or chapter officers, the president or dean of students of the institution where the chapter is located must send to the national office the name of the faculty or staff member who has been appointed to serve to reactivate the chapter. The Regional Director will be notified of this action.

SECTION 10. Loss of Rating: A chapter located at an institution which loses its rating by the regional accrediting agency, may be continued on the official membership roster on a probationary status for a maximum period of two years.

ARTICLE III Membership

SECTION 1. Types of Membership: The Society is a membership organization. The membership of this organization shall be open to men and women who meet the requirements for eligibility listed below and shall consist of collegiate, alumni, local honorary, laureate honorary, and life members.

SECTION 2. The induction fee shall be fixed by the Executive Council, and approved by the National Convention.

SECTION 3. All active members of the Society, except laureate and life members are required to pay an annual fee fixed by the Executive Council for which they will receive membership cards and official literature.

SECTION 4. The fee for honorary membership shall be fixed by the Executive Council.

SECTION 5. Each chapter which has paid the chapter tax at least thirty days prior to the Convention, the National organization will pay the registration fee for one delegate attending up to the value of the chapter tax.

SECTION 6. An Advisor's Council was authorized in 1959. This Council shall elect its officers and meet during the National Convention. Officers shall be elected for two biennia.

SECTION 7. A Regional Director's Council was authorized in 1963. This Council shall elect its officers and meet during the National Convention. Officers shall be elected for two biennia.

SECTION 8. In the case of the absence or disability of the President and Vice-President, the Executive Council shall elect an interim President who will preside until such time as the Society is assembled in Convention.

SECTION 9. Decision shall be reached by a majority vote.

SECTION 10. When Convention is in session, Article II, Section 2, shall be interpreted to mean that a three-fourths affirmative vote of the chapters represented shall authorize the establishment of a chapter.

SECTION 11. The duties of the Committee on Scholarships shall be to receive applications from eligible college seniors, to evaluate the qualifications of candidates and report its recommendations to the Convention. It shall name two $2,000 George W. Gore, Jr.- Thomas J. Crawford Scholarship Award winners each year.

ARTICLE XIII Removal of Chapter Officers

Any elected officer of the Chapter may be removed for just cause. Sufficient cause for such removal may be violation of the Chapter Bylaws or Society Constitution or any lawful rule, practice, or procedure adopted by the Chapter or other conduct deemed to be prejudicial to the best interest of the Chapter. For removal of an elected officer for cause, it shall be necessary for the Chapter Executive Committee to hold a formal hearing. A statement of the charges shall be sent by registered mail to the last recorded address of the officer, accompanied by notice of the time and place of the meeting at which the charges are to be considered. At least thirty days notice shall be given, and the officer shall have the opportunity to appear in person or to be represented by counsel and to present any defense to such charges before action is taken. The Chapter Executive Committee shall adopt such rules as may be necessary to assure due process to the officer. Upon a two-thirds affirmative vote, the Chapter Executive Committee shall recommend removal to the Society Executive Council. The Society Executive Council shall by majority vote, approve or reject the recommendation of the Chapter Executive Committee either at the next meeting or through an electronic meeting.
